

OVERVIEW

WATER SPRAY NOZZLES

Caccialanza & C. is manufacturing a very large range of water spray nozzles for fire fighting and industrial purposes.

They are used worldwide for cooling of crude oil tanks or other structures, for water deluge systems, for water walls and curtains, in the steel production, for industrial cooling systems, etc.

Caccialanza & C. water spray nozzles are available in following materials.

- brass
- bronze
- stainless steel
- Hastelloy
- PVC
- PTFE

and with following shape of the jet:

- full cone
- hollow cone
- flat jet
- square jet

The most diffused Caccialanza & C. water spray nozzles are:

- S type medium velocity full cone spray nozzles
- L type and LB type flat jet spray nozzles
- MR type mushroom spray nozzles
- CP type high velocity full cone spray nozzles
- CC type high velocity hollow cone spray nozzles

Detailed informations on the different types of water spray nozzles will be submitted on request.

Caccialanza & C. reserves the right to change or modify without previous notice any data or specification due to changes or modification in order to improve the products presented.